

SPACE UP

Los Angeles

A Space Unconference
for people who care deeply about humanity's future in space and want to play a part in it.

- “Unconference”: the attendees (you) decide the topics of conversations!
- Engage and network with 75-100 space enthusiasts across the region!
- SpaceUp has been successful in San Diego, Houston, and DC during the past year.
- Low registration fees (mostly the meal/snack cost).
